Acceptance Speech by the National chairman of the Nigerian institution of Environmental Engineers (NIEE)

Distinguished Past National Chairmen, National executive members, Fellows, and members of the Nigerian Institution of Environmental Engineers (NIEE).

I am deeply humbled and honored to accept the mantle of leadership as the National Chairman of the Nigerian Institution of Environmental Engineers (NIEE).

I am grateful to God for this opportunity, and I thank the members of NIEE for placing their trust in me. I am also grateful to our immediate Past National Chairman, Engr. (Dr.) Nurenj Adegboyega Ogunyemi, FNSE, FNIEE, for his dedication, selfless commitment, and excellent service to the institution.

As I take the helm, I promise to work tirelessly to promote the interests of our institution, advance the cause of environmental engineering, and improve the welfare of our members.

I acknowledge the challenges we face, but I am confident that with the special grace of God, support of our members and stakeholders, we will overcome them and achieve greatness.

Let us work together to build a stronger NIEE, a more sustainable Nigeria, and a brighter future for our profession.

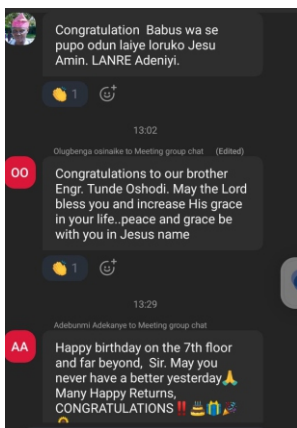

Thank you, all.
